

Workshop - Chinese workers and the textile industry. Perspectives from history and sociology

Wednesday February 13th

Location : Université Paris Diderot, Room M19, Bâtiment Olympe de Gouges, rue A. Einstein, 75013 Paris

Organizer : Gilles Guiheux, CESSMA

Morning - Chinese workers: exploring a comparative perspective
Chairman: Bernard Thomann (Inalco, Paris)

9:15 General introduction: Gilles Guiheux (Université Paris Diderot)

9:30-10:30 Eric Florence (Liège Université and CEFC Kong Kong): "The politics of recognition and working class formation among a collective of migrant workers in Beijing"

10:30-11:30 Odile Macchi (EHESS, Paris): "Textile workers in France in the 1960s and 1970s"

11:30-12:30 Kun Kajima (Yokohama University and LSE, London): "The long-term development of Chinese textile industry across the institutional change in 1978"

Afternoon - Chinese textile workers : case studies

Chairwoman : Odile Macchi (EHESS, Paris)

14:00-15:00 Fan Lulu (South China University of Technology, Guangzhou): "The Self-Organization and the Power of Female Informal Workers: A Case Study of the Cooperative Production Team in the Garment Industry in the Yangtze River Delta"

15:00-16:00 Xue Hong (East China Normal University, Shanghai): "The Missing Link between Industry Upgrading and Social Upgrading: the Lessons from a China's Garment Cluster in Jiangsu"

16:00-17:00 Gilles Guiheux (Université Paris Diderot): "A survey on textile workers in Jiaying, Zhejiang"